The Celebration of Worship

25th Weekend in Pentecost

Before worship, talk to God. During worship, let God talk to you.

After worship, talk to your fellow worshiper.

Here at Faith Community Lutheran... We almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a "blend" of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of "Word & Sacrament." Therefore, "God's Word" is held in high esteem as we follow lessons and sermon with our Bibles open. FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to "examine themselves" (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion. Children of all ages may receive the sacrament! However, if parents prefer, small children may receive a grape given with the words, "Welcome to the Lord's Table."

Looking Ahead

Clues and hints of what is to come are scattered across today's lessons. In Malachi we learn that it is going to be a bummer for "the arrogant and every evildoer." (There is burning involved.) But we also learn that for those that revere His name, "the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings." That's good to know. However, in our gospel reading, we find that there will be all kinds of trouble before the end comes. The disciples, showing their very human need to know, asked Jesus, "When will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are about to take place?" In Luke 21, Jesus says, "Watch out that you are not deceived...." and "...They will lay hands on you and persecute you." and even: "All men will hate you because of me." Yikes!

In our New Testament lesson, Paul knows that we can get all worked up over what will happen and when. He advises the Thessalonians not to stop working in order to wait for Christ's return. I think his point is that we should be ready, but not obsess about it. Live your life.

Of course, the best advice comes from Jesus directly: "Make up your mind to not worry beforehand how you will defend yourselves. I will give you words and wisdom..."

THANK YOU

A SPECIAL THANK YOU to those who were able to participate in our informational meeting on denominational affiliations on November 1. Both the participation and the inputs were excellent. We will all continue to patiently and prayerfully move forward in exploring our theological "fit", as we carry on the important ministries of our congregation. The Council will discuss what level and timing of follow up is appropriate, given the pace of developments within, and outside, of our denomination. In the meantime, please direct comments and questions directly to members of the Council and Staff.
